PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

Employers may not deduct any part of an employee's wages unless authorized to do so by a court, Federal or state law or the employee's written instructions. With this in mind, please sign this form authorizing Master Pumps & Equipment Corp. to deduct from your paycheck the following, which could apply, should you leave employment with Master Pumps without making restitution.

1. Petty Cash shortages (if you had custody and control of the funds).
2. Expense Advances over and above employee expenses incurred.
3. Uniforms – half the monthly payment, as per the Employee Manual.
4. Unauthorized charges to any Company accounts including unauthorized charges to suppliers.
5. Cash sales proceeds not properly forwarded to our lockbox.
6. Employee portions of any and all medical or benefit plan premiums.
7. Unreturned Company property, stock or other assests.
8. Commissions, bonuses or awards pending payment but reversed.

If Employer is required to seek restitution in a court of competent jurisdiction, employee(s) agrees that such court shall be in Tarrant County, Texas wherein venue lies.
